PRACTICALLY A STAND

This Seems to Be the Flood Status at Crescent City.

PROPER PROVISIONS.

All the Necessary Arrangements Are Made to Take Care of the Excess of Waters Expected Soon to Arrive.

New Orleans, March 27.—With the river practically stationary Thursday there has been little change in the flood conditions. The early morning reading of the gauge was 20.2, a rise of one-tenth in twenty-four hours. From morning to night the height of the river fluctuated, reaching 20.3 as a maximum. The phenomenal speed at which the current is flowing and favorable winds have doubtless restrained the upward tendency. Rises are reported from Red river down, but with the present spell of dry and sunny weather confidence increases in the ability of the embankments on both sides to sustain the strain upon them. A vigilant eye is being kept on every foot of levee from Red river landing to New Orleans.

The local weather bureau again advises preparation for a 21 foot stage at this point if the embankments hold. It promises that the Red, Atchafalaya and Ouachita will continue to rise. As, however, the flow of the Red and Mississippi continue into the Atchafalaya, carrying off a great volume of water from the main stream and relieving the lower reaches of the river, the expectation is, that the prediction of the bureau will not be exceeded.

Ample provision has been made here to care for the highest water now promised. In 1897 the levees from Louisiana avenue to Southport gave the most concern, but these are now considered of impregnable strength and the temporary embankments along the commercial front are in excellent shape and as a rule built to a height capable of resisting a maximum of twenty-two feet. The trouble at St. Ann street, where water was leaking through the levee, has been entirely arrested.

Thus far there has been no interruption to steamboat or ocean going traffic. The water is over many of the wharves, but emergency walks have been laid and freight is handled with slight inconvenience.

Members of the state board of engineers are at various points along the Mississippi, the Red and the La Fourche.

Train Run Out of Memphis.

Memphis, March 27.—The river is 38.7 feet on the gauge and falling. The fall since 7 o'clock Thursday morning was one-tenth of a foot, but the reports which have been received from points north of the city say that the fall has begun to have an appreciable effect there, and this fact indicates that the rate of fall will increase here. The Iron Mountain railway has at last succeeded in running a train into the city from the west. The Little Rock passenger train arrived shortly after 4 o'clock and a little later the St. Louis passenger followed. Three trains were sent out by the Iron Mountain and Cotton Belt.

First Louisiana Crevasse.

New Orleans, March 27.—The first crevasse in Louisiana occurred at midnight, Thursday night, 150 feet of the levee near Lucy, forty miles above the city, giving way. It is on the dividing line between St. Charles and St. John parishes. It is a big levee, four feet above the water and is presumed to have been cut. It is a mile and a half from the Texas and Pacific crevasse. Water is pouring in.

Interesting Information.

Monroe, La., March 27.—Some interesting information was given out by P. M. Schilling, a member of the Tensas basin levee board who has returned from Arkansas City, where with other members of the board, he had been watching water conditions. Mr. Schilling states that the conditions up there are good and that he considers that there is sufficient protection except at the Fulton Lake levee.

In Lake Providence District.

Lake Providence, La., March 27.—It was reported that the levee had broken at Van Clure, Ark. The report was soon corrected from Lake Village, Ark. Levee commissioner Hamley is just from Ashton. He says there are 300 men at work on the stretch of levee from Opossum Point to Ashton, and he feels sure they can hold it. All levees are intact in this parish.

Mills Have to Stop Operation.

Vicksburg, March 27.—The Valley road is managing to run trains on a sort of go as you can schedule way but the over-flooded sections of track are steadily increasing and shut down is imminent. All mills and other industries along the city's water front were drowned out by the additional rise.

IDE IS INTERVIEWED

Asserts That He Left the Philippines Enjoying Peace.

AS TO THE LADRONES

Claims There Has Ever Been Bands of These People Going Over Islands and Constabulary Has to Cope With Them.

San Francisco, March 27.—H. C. Ide, a member of the Philippine commission, who arrived here from Manila on leave of absence, en route to his former home in Vermont, said in an interview that when he left the island peace blessed them, and he was happy to say that health boards under immediate direction of the Philippine commission, stamped out Asiatic cholera, which caused the death of 100,000 natives. The same conditions exist in the Philippines that existed in the south and southwest after the civil war. There always have been bands of Ladrone who roam over the country robbing their own people, and the government is obliged to cope with them by the constabulary. He said the insular constabulary numbered 5,500 men, who are commanded by American officers. These men are natural hunters, and they pursued marauders with zest and nearly always captured them.

Commissioner Ide said further: "Conditions in the Philippines are constantly improving. One meets with discouraging features, but after six months you will see marvelous improvement in the development of education and acquisition of the English language, the construction of roads, creation of public improvement and police and civil courts. When one looks at progress that has been made it is to be wondered so much has been accomplished."

THREE KILLED.

That Number of Passengers Lost Their Lives in a Collision at La Costa.

San Antonio, March 27.—In the collision of the Southern Pacific trains at La Costa, the following were killed and their bodies burned: Guadalupe Cante, Monterey, Mex.; Antonio Arizpe, Sabinas, Mex.; Manuel Trevino Santo, Sabinas, Mex. Seven persons were injured.

The three dead Mexicans were relatives of Gen. Geronimo Trevino of Monterey, Mex., who was on his way to San Antonio, accompanied by his wife and son. The Trevinos were not injured. The dead men were in a compartment of the private car of Gen. Trevino. The Pullman car in the rear telescoped the private car, crushing them to death. Their bodies were not recovered until they had been burned to a crisp in the fire, which destroyed the entire train, including the engine. The fire originated from the oil in the tender.

The trains were east bound. The first, the Eagle Pass train was standing on the main line at La Costa. The cause of the stop at La Costa, which is only a small place is not known. The Sunset Limited, from El Paso, was traveling at a good rate of speed, when it crashed into the rear of the Eagle Pass train, and into the rear sleeper. This car in turn telescoped into the Trevino private coach, killing the Mexicans.

The engine of the Limited was destroyed. Most of the injured were on the Limited and their hurts are due to shock, being thrown from their seats. The injured were brought to San Antonio.

AMENDED ARTICLES.

These Have Been Placed on File by the New Steel Merger.

Trenton, N. J., March 27.—Counsel for the United States Steel corporation filed in the office of the secretary of state articles amending the charter of the National Steel company, which was filed Thursday for the purpose of merging the Carnegie company, National Steel company and American Steel Hoop company. The amended articles change the name from the National Steel company, filed Thursday, to the Carnegie Steel company. The papers are the same as those filed Thursday.

MANY INJURED.

Derailment of Burlington Train Causes a Number of People to Be Hurt.

Des Moines, Ia., March 27.—South-bound passenger train on the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad was derailed four miles north of Thompson, Ill., and twenty-six persons injured. The two rear coaches, the Pullman sleeper, and chair car turned over and caught fire. Trainmen chopped a hole through the bottom of the chair car, through which passengers were rescued. Those in sleepers had a narrow escape from burning, many being forced to leave in their night clothes.

BRYAN, TEXAS, MAR. 28, 1903.

Houston will have a great department store. Texas is growing great.

Some day the Mississippi river will be divided. A great canal will carry part of its flood waters to the gulf, and damaging and dangerous overflows will be averted.

This is a grand old state, else she could not survive some of the narrow-brained legislation that that comes forth from her state house.—Bryan Eagle.

What has the legislature done to deserve this?—Galveston News.

Nothing, that we know of. The above expression never appeared in the Bryan Eagle. Please correct.

The Houston Post's editorial in yesterday's paper upon the decision of the court of criminal appeals declaring Galveston's government to be unconstitutional, is one of the ablest papers on constitutional law ever penned, even though the gifted and learned editor of the Post is not a lawyer.
This editorial is one that might well be taken up by classes on civil government in our schools and given close study, in connection with the decision it refers to, for it goes to the root of some of the deepest questions concerning our theory of government. The editor takes the contra view of the question from that maintained by the court. He contends for the sovereignty of the state as against the sovereignty of the township; yet shows that even the right of local self-government was not contravened when the people of Galveston, by a majority of ninety per cent, asked the legislature for the commission form of government and got what they asked for.

VOLUNTEER GUARD MATTERS.

The following telegrams are self-explanatory:

Washington, D. C., March 21.— Adjutant General Scurry, Texas; Austin, Texas: "Department ready to issue magazine arms and equipments under Section 13, Militia law, as soon as the number required to arm organized militia of your state can be determined by personal inspection by army officers. Secretary of war desires you to advise this office by wire earliest date and place where inspectors can visit each of your organizations. Parker,
Asst. Adjutant General."

"To the Adjutant General, U. S.
A., Militia Division, Washington, D. C.:—"Prefer that inspections by army officers begin here not earlier than April 20. Forty-seven towns to visit, sixty-two company, troop and battery organizations to inspect. Will mail list.

Thos. Scurry,
Adjutant General.
The purpose of these inspections is for the army officers to report to the Secretary of War the number of organized militia entitled to the new arms and equipments under section 13 of the act entitled "An Act—To promote the efficiency of the Militia and for other purposes." (Copy enclosed.)

In order to secure the full benefits of this section, it is necessary for each organization to assemble all of its members when directed to do so for this inspection, and for the oath of service of each member to be on file in this office.

This inspection will probably be in the nature of a muster and the officers and men of each organization must be present, unless excused on account of sickness.

It is to be hoped that each organization will have a full attendance and prove themselves efficient. Arms, equipments and uniforms on hand must be in a good clean condition when inspected.

By command of the governor.

acted to 9.87, and finally closed steady at 9.85-86.

Spot quotations were not disturbed.
Middling 10.05. Sales, 391 bales.
The southern markets as a rule were steady at unchanged prices.

New Orleans sold 775 bales on a basis of 9 13-16 for middling, and Memphis sold 500 bales at 9¼ for same grade.

The port receipts aggregated 18,208 bales; same day 1902, 8,195; 1901, 12, 496; 1900, 11,591; 1899, 12,087; 1898, 13,851. The interior cotton receipts were relatively small. The five principal towns received 6,251 bales against 1,335 bales for the same day last season.

New Orleans expects tomorrow 6500 to 7500 bales, same day last year 4807. Galveston expects tomorrow 2000 to 3000 bales, same day last year 4310. Houston expects tomorrow 2100 to 2300 bales, same day last year

The amount coming into sight for the week proved to be 129,282 bales; same day 1902, 121,361; 1901, 131,012; 1900, 113,729.

There has been a disposition to support the market today and this fact, taken in connection with the break in the levee at Greenville, should advance the market. We look for higher prices.

BURDICK VINDICATED.

This Seems to Be the Opinion as to Aspersions Upon His Character.

Buffalo, N. Y., March 27.—The inquest into the death of Edwin L. Burdick, who was murdered a month ago Thursday in his home in Ashland avenue, has ended.

At the close of the inquest Judge Murphy announced that an official inquiry into the death of Arthur R. Pen-nell, who has figured prominently in the Burdick inquest, would be begun on Monday.

The Burdick inquest has served to develop several theories relative to the crime, but the investigation has not added anything more than an appearance of reasonability to any of these theories. Aside from the failure of the authorities to secure evidence bearing directly upon the commission of the crime or to establish the identity of the murderer, there is a feeling of satisfaction that the name of Mr. Burdick has been lifted from the mire in which it was first dragged, and that his character has been shown in its true light. The evidence brought out under the examination of witnesses by District Attorney Coatsworth has shown Burdick to have been a loving father; always willing to sacrifice his own happiness and pride for the sake of his children; that he was the victim of false friendship, broken pledges and in face of it all, a forgiving, indulgent husband.

The efforts of the authorities to fix the crime upon some one will not end with the inquest. At the same time there is now little hope of success in this undertaking.

NO LETTERS.

General MacDonald Left Nothing Behind That Is Intelligible.

Paris, March 27.—Efforts were made to trace the letters and documents received by Major General MacDonald from the war office shortly before his suicide, as it was thought that they might throw light on the motive for the act, but the magistrate who has taken charge of the dead man's effects says no letters or documents were found except some unintelligible scribbling which would indicate that the writer was in a dazed condition. As a number of letters from the war office were delivered to him last Wednesday and Thursday the authorities concluded that the general prepared for his end by first destroying the letters.

The Figaro asserts that one of the letters received by Sir Hector McDonald from the war office on Wednesday morning was an ultimatum ordering him to leave forthwith for Ceylon, thus destroying his last hope of a reconsideration of his case by the war authorities in England. The fact, however, that the general took his life soon after he was observed scanning two newspapers published in English giving the charges made against him and publishing a portrait of him, is taken as indicating that pain at the publicity rather than any action by the British war office determined his act.

FAR REACHING.

What John Redmond Has to Say of the Irish Land Bill.

London, March 27.—John Redmond wrote the following in part for the Associated Press:

"The land bill in many respects is a far-reaching and important measure. It proposes a loan for the purpose of enabling the landlords to be bought out to the extent of 100,000,000 pounds, in addition to a bonus not to be repaid, to amount to at least $12,- 000,000. The bill does not fill all the requirements of the case. It does not provide as good terms either for the landlord or tenants as proposed at the recent land conference, but it marks an enormous advance on any measure of its kind hitherto proposed by an English government. It is the direct result of the unity of the national movement in Ireland and the National party in parliament for the last three years which led to the breakdown of coercion in Ireland and which induced the landlords to come to the conclusion that their best interests lay in making friends with the Irish people instead of continuing in conflict with them. The land conference which ensued spoke in the name of United Ireland."

AFTER BUCKET SHOPS.

New York and New Orleans Cotton Exchanges Said to Be Against Them.

New Orleans, March 27.—The New Orleans cotton exchange is said to have under consideration a request of the New York to co-operate with that body in striking an effective blow at bucket shops. It is understood here that exchange has entered into an agreement with the telegraph companies whereby the latter will be obligate themselves not to furnish cotton futures quotations to any firm not on a list to be furnished by the exchange, and Secretary King is said to be now preparing the list. If the New Orleans exchange ratifies the agreement, bucket shops throughout the country will be put to a serious disadvantage if not actually eliminated. The news of the request from New York has been secret, but a committee of the local exchange is said to have the matter in charge, and the probability is that a favorable report will be adopted upon it.

SLOWLY CRUMBLING.

Water Roaring Through the Break and Spreading Over a Wide Area.

New Orleans, March 27.—With water roaring through the break and spreading over a wide area of country, the ends of the crevasse near Lucy are reported to be slowly crumbling.

Lumber was scarce at the scene when the levee gave way, but a special train over the Texas and Pacific got away before daylight with a large consignment of material and planters hurried hands from all directions. The crevasse occurred in the bend of the river and that adds to the difficulties in the work of repair. Several square miles of territory have been overflowed and large plantations at St. John, St. Charles and Jefferson parishes will doubtless go under water, though many of the plantations in the three parishes which lie along the river will

LINE OPENED.

Iron Mountain Officials Have Done Much Energetic Work.

Memphis, March 27.—The river continues to fall here slowly and flood waters are fast flowing out of the lowlands in Arkansas. Railroad situation is greatly improved by energetic work of the Iron Mountain officials in opening the line through the high water west of the river. Assistant General Passenger Agent Wilson announced that all trains over this line are arriving and departing on schedule time. The Choctaw, Frisco and Cotton Belt railroads are using the Iron Mountain tracks for traffic until their own lines are opened up. The resumption of traffic on the Iron Mountain insures the attendance of a large number of horses now participating at Little Rock meeting at Montgomery park on Monday next, when the spring meeting of the Memphis Jockey club will be inaugurated.

TEXT OF BILL.

The Irish Land Measure Occupies Nearly Forty Pages of Paper.

London, March 27.—The text of the Irish land purchase bill which was introduced in the house of commons by Irish Secretary Wyndham on Wednesday last has been given out. It occupies thirty-nine pages of parliamentary paper, and bristles with technicalities. The full wording reveals many important features which were not mentioned in Mr. Wyndham's speech when the bill was introduced. All arrears of rent due at time of purchase of land are recoverable by land commission. The land commissioners, however, are given power in special cases to remit part or all of arrears. Commissioners are not permitted to purchase estates which are not mainly agricultural or pastoral. Thus Killarney is exempt under this clause. In cases of untenanted estates purchased by commissioners they are empowered to execute necessary works of improvement, which tremendously enlarges the scope of the commission's expenditure. The sub-tenants to be tenants of any holding occupied by them, which will vastly benefit hundreds.

Measure for Benefit of These Institutions Has Been Introduced.

Austin, March 27.—The bill to relieve fair associations from the operation of the anti-poolroom law was introduced Thursday by Senator Hicks, Davidson of Galveston, Davison of Dewitt, Wilney, Hill, Decker, Savage, Paulus, Lipscomb, Fause, Stafford and Paulson. It has been reported favorably by senate judiciary No. 2 with a minority report by Senator Brachfield. It provides as follows:

"Section 1. Hereafter it shall be lawful to wager upon races between horses in this state when such races are conducted under the supervision of any fair association chartered under the laws of the state of Texas, and when such wager is made on the day the race is actually run, and within 200 feet of the track or grounds where such race is run; provided, that this act shall not be construed to at any time or place authorize the selling of pools on any horse race."

In the senate a number of amendments to the Terrell election bill were adopted. Bill went to third reading, but failed to get four-fifths vote to suspend rules and pass finally.

House adopted free conference report on house bill repealing occupation taxes on merchants, bankers, lawyers and dentists.

The engineer of the second section, named Quinn, was badly injured.

DEAF DELIGHTED.

Are Surprised to Be Able to Distinguish Sounds of Various Kinds.

New York, March 27.—Another interesting demonstration of the powers of the acousticon has been given in this city by inventor Miller Reese Hutchinson. Mr. Hutchinson selected as subjects for experiments inmates of the New York Academy for instruction of the Deaf and Dumb.

Some had been stricken with deafness at too early an age to remember what the meaning of sound was, and one girl in particular almost went into spasms of delight when the ear piece was adjusted and she heard the strains of music. Mark Twain was in the little audience, as was also Mrs. George Dewey, wife of the admiral. There was one skeptic present. He was deaf, but had no faith in the invention, so asked to be put in the chair. This was done, and his face flushed with surprise when he was able to distinguish "mamma" from "papa." Mr. Hutchinson said "hello" to him and he repeated it.

The Threatened Trouble Over the Color Question Simmered Down.

New Orleans, March 27.—The threatened trouble over the color question having simmered down the National Council of Women of the United States opened their executive session here Thursday and the general officers held their public reception at night. No negroes were present on either occasion. Mrs. May Wright Sewell, president of the international council, said there had never been any probability of the attendance of a colored woman at the social function. Similar receptions had always been given at the north, but on no occasion had a negro woman attended. There are only two colored women in the world entitled to be present at the business sessions here, said Mrs. Sewell. One was Mrs. Yates of Missouri; the other was Mrs. Williams of this city. Mrs. Yates could not come and sent her proxy.
